STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

India remains committed to safeguard its national security as a Nuclear Weapon State. At the same time, India's policy has always been not to assist, encourage or induce any other country to manufacture weapons of mass destruction (WMD) including nuclear weapons or other nuclear explosive devices. India continues to fulfil its international commitments under the Chemical Weapons Convention and the Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention, to which it is a State Party. India also remains committed to prevent non-State actors and terrorists from acquiring weapons of mass destruction and their means of delivery.

2. Over the years, India has enacted necessary legislations dealing with and having relevance to weapons of mass destruction, their means of delivery and related dual-use materials, equipment and technologies. It has also put in place administrative mechanisms to prevent any unlawful access to weapons of mass destruction and their means of delivery. Being conscious of its responsibilities, India has been exercising control over the export of WMD usable materials, equipment and technologies.

3. In view of India's status as a Nuclear Weapon State and its international commitments, it is felt necessary to introduce an over-arching legislation to prohibit unlawful activities in relation to weapons of mass destruction, their means of delivery and related dual-use materials, equipment and technologies. As such, this will provide an integrated legislative basis to our commitment to prevent proliferation of weapons of mass destruction. In addition, the envisaged control over the export of WMD usable materials, equipment and technologies will also fulfil our mandatory obligations pursuant to UN Security Council Resolution 1540 adopted under Chapter VII of the UN Charter on April 28, 2004.

4. The proposed Bill intends to achieve the above objectives.

NEW DELHI,

K. NATWAR SINGH.

The 6th May, 2005.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

As per Entry 54 of List-II (State List) of the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution of India, tax on sale or purchase of goods within a State is a State subject. Accordingly, the States were levying sales tax on sale of goods. In the conference of Chief Ministers of States/UTs, convened by the Union Finance Minister, in November, 1999, it was, inter alia, decided that the prevailing tax system in the States/UTs should be simplified, by replacement of sales tax with VAT. An Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers was also constituted in July, 2000, on the recommendation of the Chief Ministers, to monitor the process of reforms.

2. In the meeting of the Empowered Committee of State Finance Ministers held on 18th June, 2004, the States arrived at a broad consensus to introduce State level Value Added Tax w.e.f. 1st April, 2005. In pursuance of the said decision, the Governor of Bihar had promulgated Bihar Value Added Tax Ordinance, 2005 (Bihar Ordinance No. 1 of 2005) on 4th March, 2005. Thus, VAT has been introduced in the State of Bihar with effect from 1st April, 2005. The Value Added Tax system will simplify the tax structure and make it more transparent, leading to improved tax compliance and increase in revenue.

3. On 7th March, 2005, the State of Bihar was placed under President's Rule, under article 356 of the Constitution of India. As per article 356, powers of the State Legislature of Bihar shall be exercisable by or under the authority of the Parliament. Therefore, the Bihar VAT Ordinance, 2005, has to be replaced by an Act to be passed by the Parliament.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

P. CHIDAMBARAM.

NEW DELHI;
The 6th May, 2005.

Notes on clauses

Clause 2.—This clause relates to definitions. It defines certain expressions used in the Bill.

Clause 3.—This clause relates to charge of tax:—

Sub-clause (1) provides that every dealer who was registered under the Bihar Finance Act, 1981, shall be liable to pay tax on sale or purchase, made by him under the proposed legislation.

Sub-clause (2) provides that every dealer, who was not registered under the Bihar Finance Act, 1981 shall be liable to pay tax on sale or purchase from the date on which his gross turnover, during a period not exceeding twelve months first exceeded five lakh rupees.

Sub-clause (3) provides that certain dealers referred to in this sub-clause shall be liable to pay tax on sale or purchase, as the case may be, with effect from the date of the first sale of any taxable goods made by him irrespective of their turnover. Such dealers referred to in this sub-clause are (i) an importer or a manufacturer; or (ii) who are required to file a return under the Income-Tax Act, 1961; or (iii) who hold any licence under the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, or the Bihar Excise Act, 1915, or the Essential Commodities Act, 1955, or the Explosives Act, 1884 or the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957; or (iv) who are a corporation constituted under any law for the time being in force or a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956 or is registered under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956; or (v) whose place of business is located inside the market yard established under the Bihar Agriculture Produce Market Act, 1960; or (vi) who use a telephone in his place of business or has a mobile telephone; and the receipts or payments of whose business, either wholly or in part, are transacted through any bank.

Sub-clause (4) provides that every dealer who has become liable to pay tax under sub-clauses (1), (2) and (3) shall, subject to the provisions of sub-clause (5), cease to be so liable after the expiry of twelve consecutive months from the date he either closes or discontinues his business or entirely transfers his business to another person.

Sub-clause (5) provides that a registered dealer shall, within a period of twelve consecutive months, pay tax on the stock of goods remaining with him on the date with effect from which he closes or discontinues his business. This sub-clause empowers the Commissioner to extend the period of twelve consecutive months if the goods are held in stock beyond the said period of twelve months because of reasons beyond the control of the dealer.

Sub-clause (6) provides that notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (1), (2) or (3), where any person who is or was, less than six months earlier, a member of the partnership firm, concern or undivided Hindu family which is or was, less than six months earlier, liable to pay tax, starts a new business, either singly or jointly with other persons, or joins other business, partnership firm or concern, tax as aforesaid, shall likewise be payable on sales and purchases made from such business, partnership firm or concern, on and from the date the person starts or joins it unless the liability in respect of such business, partnership firm or concern has arisen from an earlier date under the said sub-clauses.

Clause 4.—This clause relates to levy of purchase tax. This clause provides that every dealer liable to pay tax under clause 3, who purchases goods in circumstances in which no tax on sales is payable or has been paid on the sale price of such goods and either consumes them in the manufacture of other goods for sale or otherwise disposes of such goods in any manner other than by way of sale in the State or sale in the course of inter-State trade or commerce, shall be liable to pay tax on the purchase price of such goods at the same rate at which it would have been leviable on the sale price of such goods under clause 14.

Clause 5.—This clause relates to liability to pay purchase tax on certain purchases. This clause provides that where a dealer purchases any taxable goods from any person who is not a registered dealer within the State of Bihar and these goods are used as capital assets anytime after such purchase, there shall be levied, a tax on the purchase price of such purchases at the rate at which tax on sales is leviable on the said goods.

Clause 6.—This clause relates to non-levy of tax in certain cases. This clause provides that inter-State sales or purchases, sales or purchases outside the State and sales or purchases in the course of import of goods into, or, export of goods out of, the territory of India shall not be levied to tax. The provisions of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 shall apply for determining the nature of the aforesaid transactions.

Clause 7.—This clause relates to exemptions and provides that no tax shall be payable on sale or purchase of goods specified in Schedule I.

Clause 8.—This clause relates to burden of proof and provides that the burden of proving that any sale or purchase effected by a dealer is not liable to tax under clause 6 or clause 7 or sub-clause (2) of clause 13 or that he is eligible for an input tax credit under clauses 16 and 17 shall be on the claimant's, dealer.
